

Mr. Winkle Asks You to Remember All Dogs Are Angels!

Won't you make your home heaven on Earth for your angel? All dogs need fresh food and water, exercise, and warm, dry shelter. But what they really crave is affection, attention, and companionship from their families, their pack. Scratches behind the ears, games of fetch, and walks around the block mean the world to them. Curling up at your feet while you watch TV is their idea of heaven. If you have a so-called "backyard dog," please, let him or her inside. Dogs deserve a lot, but they'll settle for your love and attention.
