

GLOSSARY

Here are some words used in Meet Ingrid Newkirk.
Knowing what they mean will help you better understand the text.

animal experimenter	a person who tests on animals animal pound	a place that houses stray animals animal rights	the idea that nonhuman animals deserve equal consideration campaign	a series of activities designed to bring about a particular result charity	an organization that helps others for free dissect	to cut up an animal for examination and study documentary	a movie that presents actual events or facts about something engineer	a person who has scientific training and who designs and builds complicated products, machines, systems, or structures kennel	a large enclosure where companion animals are housed laboratory	a place equipped to perform scientific experiments and tests leprosy	a serious disease that causes painful, rough areas on the skin and badly damages the nerves and flesh slaughterhouse	a place where animals are killed and their bodies are processed for food spay/neuter	an operation that prevents an animal from having babies steel-jaw trap	a device used for trapping animals that clamps down onto their legs or paws and cuts into their flesh as they struggle to get free vegan	a person who does not eat or use animal-derived foods or materials