

BEYOND MONKEYS

for Better Science

Why ending NIH's psychological experiments on monkeys is essential for taxpayers, animals, and public health

CONGRESSIONAL BRIEFING

DATE: January 27, 2015

TIME: 12-1:30 p.m.

PLACE: Cannon House Office Building,
Rm. 122

Lunch will be provided.

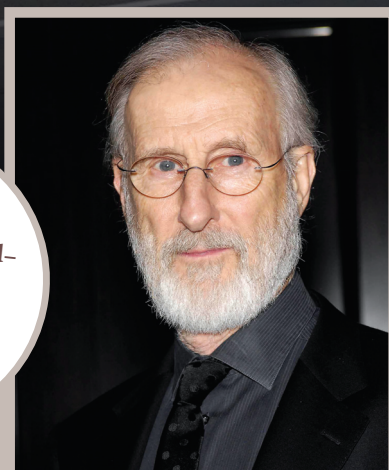

Honorary host

Rep. Lucille Roybal-Allard (D-Calif.)

Hosted by

People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals

Moderated
by Academy Award-nominated actor
JAMES CROMWELL

© www.stamainc.com

SPEAKERS

- DR. JOHN GLUCK, professor emeritus of psychology, University of New Mexico, and research professor, Kennedy Institute of Ethics, Georgetown University
- DR. BARBARA KING, chancellor professor of anthropology, College of William and Mary, author, columnist, and commentator for NPR.org and TIME.com
- DR. KATHERINE ROE, PETA research associate and former neuroscientist at the National Institutes of Health

RSVP: Brittney Hopwood, BrittneyH@peta.org • Media: Tasgola Bruner, TasgolaB@peta.org