

Miami Seaquarium: Confinement and Cruelty

Could you live in a bathtub for 40 years?

LOLITA HAS BEEN STUCK IN A TINY TANK AT THE MIAMI SEAQUARIUM SINCE 1970, WHEN SHE WAS TORN AWAY FROM HER OCEAN FAMILY. She is a lone orca surrounded by concrete and chemically treated water, and the Seaquarium refuses to release her to a coastal sanctuary. Help free her by taking action at PETA.org.
