

PETA thanks the following reputable sanctuaries and accredited zoos that stepped up to provide excellent, permanent homes to animals rescued from Tri-State Zoological Park.

1. Lions, Tigers, and Bears: Alpine, CA
 - Two bears
 - Two miniature horses
 - Llama/alpaca hybrid
2. Cleveland Amory Black Beauty Ranch: Murchison, TX
 - Two emu
 - Two coatimundis
 - Two ducks
 - Pot-bellied pig
3. Peaceable Primate Sanctuary: Winimac, IN
 - Eleven peafowl
4. Oakland Zoo: Oakland, CA
 - Red-footed tortoise
 - Leopard tortoise
5. Detroit Zoo: Royal Oak, MI
 - Squirrel monkey
6. Wildlife Rescue & Rehabilitation: Kendalia, TX
 - Four alligators
 - Snapping turtle
7. Carolina Tiger Rescue: Pittsboro, NC
 - Raccoon
 - New Guinea singing dog
8. Colorado Reptile Humane Society: Longmont, CO
 - Spiny-tailed iguana
 - Two ball pythons
9. Black Pine Animal Sanctuary: Albion, IN
 - Woma python
 - Blue-tonged skink
 - Two leopard geckos
10. The Turtle Conservancy: Ojai, CA
 - Four box turtles
 - Russian tortoise
11. Iguana Haven: Fort Lauderdale, FL
 - Three iguanas
12. Vine Sanctuary: Smith Island, MD
 - Rooster
 - Hen
13. Poplar Spring Animal Sanctuary: Poolesville, MD
 - Goat
 - Two geese
 - Three red-eared sliders (turtles)

14. The Wildcat Sanctuary: Sandstone, MN

- Bengal Cat

- Special thanks to The Maryland Zoo for temporarily housing Stardust the squirrel monkey and completing his pre-transport testing, and to Animal Care Daybreak veterinary clinic in South Jordan, UT for providing supportive care to Loki the reticulated python upon his arrival in Utah!

- Domestic cats PETA rescued from Tri-State Zoological Park will be available for adoption at the Allegany Humane Society in Cumberland, MD.