2.78(c) Repeat

Health certification and identification.

On 20 June 2022, the transporter accepted nonhuman primates for shipment when the health certificate documented both the inspection date and the shipment date were greater than 10 days from acceptance date by the transporter. USDA regulations require a health certificate for nonhuman primate, dog or cat transports documenting the animal was inspected within 10 days by a licensed veterinarian before they are transported in commerce.

This inspection and exit interview were conducted with the facility representative.
